Editorial guidelines for authors

“Inspiration” section

The “Inspiration” section consists of articles (maximum of 12,000 characters, including spaces, bibliography and appendix) and drawings (or any other illustrations) drawn from culture in the broadest sense (literature, performing arts, visual arts, etc.) to shed light on the theme of an issue from different perspectives, enriching the dialogue and broadening the debate.

Creativity and originality are at the heart of this section, providing a space for nourishing unconventional thinking!
